

I oppose the weaking of Indiana's law in reference to telemarketing. Federal government has always allowed states to strenghten existing federal laws. We the people of Indiana do not wish to have this decision forced upon us by those totally uneffected by their decision. Thank you. May God bless you.